Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence.

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 30th May 1953

S.R.O. 222.—The following Bye-laws for the regulation or prohibition of the stabling or herding of animals and their registration and for the licensing of premises for the use as stables or cow houses in the Kirkee Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Kirkee, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (11) and (37) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), and in supersession of the Bye-laws published with the notification of the Government of India in the late Defence Department No. 1760, dated the 23rd October 1941, are hereby published for general information the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws

Bye-laws for the stabling or herding of animals and their registration and for licensing of premises for the use as stables or cow houses.

1. Definition.—For the purpose of these bye-laws:—

- (a) “stable” means any house, shed, building or room in a house, shed or building in which horses, ponies, mules or donkeys are lodged or fed.
- (b) “cow house” means a house, shed, or building or room in a house, shed or building in which horned cattle are lodged or fed.

2. Every person owning or keeping or otherwise in charge of animals mentioned in Appendix ‘A’ to this bye-laws shall within 15 days after these Bye-laws come in force or within fifteen days of bringing such animals within the limits of the Cantonment, as the case may be, cause such animals to be registered on payment of the registration fees prescribed in the said Appendix ‘A’.

3. If the animal or animals are kept within Cantonment limits temporarily for a period not exceeding one month, no registration shall be necessary.

4. Such registration shall hold good for one year from 1st April to 31st March of each year and shall be renewed on necessary payment on or after 1st of April every year.

5. Every registered animal shall wear a collar to which shall be attached a metal token bearing the number in the Register. The tokens shall be of such pattern as may be determined by the Cantonment Board from time to time, and shall be of a size easily distinguishable and shall bear consecutive numbers.

6. Each metal token shall be supplied by the Cantonment Board, on payment of four annas. In the event of the loss of a metal token, a new token shall be supplied on payment of a like amount.

7. Any animal not so registered if found in any public place shall be detained at the Central Cattle Pound or at any other place set apart for this purpose, and

8. No person shall use any premises within the Cantonment as a stable, cow house, or as accommodation for sheep and goats, until a licence has been granted for the same in accordance with the provisions of the following bye-laws.

9. Every person desiring to take out such licence shall apply to the Executive Officer, and the Executive Officer may grant the licence or, for reasons to be recorded, may refuse it.

10. The licence shall be in the form set out in Appendix 'B' to these Bye-laws and shall be issued on payment of one rupee (Re. 1) to be paid in advance.

11. Every licence shall be deemed to be for a period ending on the 31st March next after the date from which it is expressed to take effect.

12. The floors of all premises licenced under these Bye-laws shall be paved with asphalt, stone, brick on edge with cement pointing, flag-stones set in cement, or with some other suitable impervious material approved by the Executive Officer.

13. A licence shall not be granted for any premises situated below any place used for human habitation, unless the ceiling of the premises is separated from the floor of such place by an unbroken layer of at least 3 inches of concrete, stone brick or mud.

14. A licence shall not be granted, for any premises within 100 feet of any bakery or licensed butcher's shop.

15. Every licensee shall deposit, or cause to be deposited all the dung and dried refuse in such places as the Executive Officer may fix for the purpose.

16. The licensee shall not use, or allow to be used, any premises licensed under these Bye-laws for human habitation.

17. Every licensee shall cause the premises licensed under these Bye-laws to be cleaned daily and the walls and ceiling thereof shall be lime washed every three months.

18. The Executive Officer may suspend or cancel any licence for breach of any of the provisions of these Bye-laws.

19. A breach of any of these Bye-laws shall on conviction by a magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of continuing breach with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such breach continues after conviction for the first such breach.
